

Dear TLH Faculty Fellows,

We are so excited to gather everyone for our Summer Institute on June 23 @10AM. This meeting will be our first opportunity to meet and to start planning how we will transform CUNY through empowered, student-centered teaching and learning.

Zoom Registration Required by June 14: The TLH Summer Institute will run from 10AM-1PM. In this remote event we have built in breaks as well as engaged activities so we're confident the time will fly by. Please complete this Zoom registration as soon as possible. We need time to prepare, so we will bug you if we don't have your Zoom registration by June 14. Here's the link:

By now, you should have received the books we hope will spark your thinking about our collaborative work ahead. If you have not yet received them, or if you need help using your voucher, please contact our team at TLH@cuny.edu.

Before our meeting on June 23: We hope you can take a moment to look over the books, especially MC24 (pp. 38-47) and your favorite from among the Lost & Found books (Bambara, Jordan, or Lorde).

Please also consider how one of these books inspires an assignment, format, or exercise that you can incorporate into a syllabus. Please come to the Summer Institute with something you would like to add to or experiment with in an upcoming class—a part of a syllabus, an assignment, a field trip, or some other idea you would feel comfortable sharing. You're welcome to bring something in-process, so that you might get helpful feedback from other TLH Faculty Fellows.

The TLH website has published all of your biographies—please visit it so you can learn about each other. We also made this video so you can know more about us, and about what we've been thinking before we begin our work together.

Did we mention that we're excited? We are. We know our collaborations will mark the start of CUNY's transformative leadership in higher education.

See you on June 23!
Cathy and Shelly
