

TLH Seminar # 2 Run of Show (Fall 2021)

Agenda:

- 4:00 - 4:05 Welcome
- 4:05 - 4:55 Public Knowledge Project Groups
- 10 min: Groups Meet in Breakout Rooms
 - 40 min: Each group gets 5 min to Share Out (Then 5 min w/comments and questions in the chat after each)
 - How do we get away from “talking heads”?
 - How do we incorporate students?
 - How do you streamline realistically given tight timelines and lots of other commitments in life?
- 4:55 - 5:00 Break
- 5:00 - 5:30 Cathy and Shelly Inspired by Chavez, Chapter 8
- Pp. 168-169: “Education is no longer a matter of rote regurgitation: Here’s what you told me to do and so I did it. Our students want to know why, and to what end. They want the tools necessary to stake a claim in more just, equitable, and inclusive learning communities. That’s real academic freedom.”
- 5:30 - 6:00 Ungrading
- Developing questions about ungrading for Susan Blum, slide presentation by Christina, reminder to register for Transformative Speaker Series event (Blum on ungrading)

Letter sent to fellows before the seminar:

Hello Fall Faculty Fellows!

We look forward to seeing you on Tuesday, October 19th, from 4-6PM. The Zoom link is in your calendar invitation and you also can access the meeting here.

Before then, as a friendly reminder, please send us a rough outline of your plans and needs for your public knowledge project by next Friday, October 15th, by completing this form.

*On October 19, we would like you to share your plans for your Public Knowledge project. We will also refer to “Promoting Camaraderie and Collective Power” (Chapter 8 in the Antiracist Writing Workshop) and Susan D. Blum’s Introduction, “Why Ungrade? Why Grade?” from the Ungrading book for our workshop conversations. Please read both chapters, if you can, and think of some questions you might like to ask Dr. Blum, who we have invited to give an interactive lecture on October 26th at 4PM EST.*

If you have any questions or concerns, please reach out to us at TLH@cumy.edu.

Looking forward to seeing you then!

Shelly and Cathy
