

January 15, 2023

To Whom it May Concern:

[NAME] was selected as a Mellon Foundation Transformative Learning in the Humanities Student Scholar and served as a leading participant in the Transformative Learning in the Humanities \(TLH\) Fall 2022 public knowledge project, "[TITLE OF PROJECT]."

TLH is a three-year initiative at the City University of New York (CUNY) supported by a generous grant from the Mellon Foundation. TLH is part of the CUNY Innovative Teaching Academy, which aims to improve pedagogy at scale and recognize excellence and innovation in teaching by CUNY faculty. TLH supports public talks, symposia, and workshops as well as a series of intensive peer-to-peer faculty seminars for CUNY faculty in the humanities, arts, and interpretive social sciences.

[NAME] co-organized and participated in a public knowledge project at [CUNY College] in collaboration with student peers and faculty under the supervision of Professor [Faculty name]. We are deeply grateful to [Student Last Name] for their leadership, volunteerism, and for their collaboration with and service to the CUNY community.

Sincerely,
Christina Katopodis, PhD
Associate Director
Transformative Learning in the Humanities
City University of New York